X. CERTIFICATION AND SIGNATURE (to be completed by applicant)

Have you read, and are you in agreement with the statement of faith and lifestyle statement as found in the admissions section of the academic catalog?

- Yes       No

Students, by virtue of their enrollment, agree to live within the framework of the school's standards of conduct. While some may not have personal convictions in accord with these standards, agreeing to them obligates the student to assume responsibility for honorable adherence to them while enrolled at the seminary (arrival on campus through the termination of the academic program for each school year). It should, of course, be understood that any behavior, either on campus or away, which indicates that a student has disregard for the spirit of the school standards would be sufficient reason to ask him/her to withdraw from school.

As a student of Grand Rapids Theological Seminary, I agree to:

1. Exhibit honesty and integrity in my academic pursuits, personal relationships, and professional work.
2. Practice discernment in the areas of media and entertainment.
3. Abstain from the possession and use of alcoholic beverages, tobacco, and illegal drugs.
4. Honor biblical teaching in order to maintain a right relationship with God, people, and creation.

I understand that GRTS reserves the right to perform a criminal background check on students of the university. By signing below I am authorizing the university to perform a criminal background check.

I understand that accounts not paid in accordance with school policies may be submitted to a collection agency. In addition, I understand that I am responsible for all collection costs if my account is submitted to a collection agency.

I certify that all my answers on this application are complete and accurate to the best of my knowledge. I understand that falsifying any part of this application may result in cancellation of admission and/or registration. Finally, I certify that I will honorably adhere to the seminary standards as outlined above.
