

Refereed (Peer-Reviewed, Reviewed) Journals

(Kinesiology Emphasis)

To Find if a Journal is Peer-Reviewed

- Go to the Miller Library web site (<http://www.cornerstone.edu/library>)
- Select All Databases A-Z
- Select Ulrich's Periodical Directory
- Select Title (Exact) and enter the journal title
- In the Features column, check Refereed
- From the results screen, look for the Refereed symbol (TR)

To Find Miller Library Journal Holdings

- Go to the Miller Library web site (<http://www.cornerstone.edu/library>)
- Select Search the Library Catalog
- Select Journal Title
- Enter the journal title
- Look for the Libr. has information

To Find Other Miller Library Journal Holdings

- Go to the Miller Library web site (<http://www.cornerstone.edu/library>)
- Select Journals @ Miller Library and enter the Title

To Find Peer-Reviewed Journals in Thomson Gale Databases

- Go to the Miller Library web site (<http://www.cornerstone.edu/library>)
- Select Favorite Database > Thomson Gale
- Check the <Select All> box
- Select your search method
- Under Limit the results, select to peer-reviewed publications

- Select Health and Wellness Resource Center and Alternative Health Module
 - o Enter your search term(s)
 - o Check the to refereed publications box after Limit the current search

To Find Peer-Reviewed Journals Using FirstSearch

- Go to the Miller Library web site (<http://www.cornerstone.edu/library>)
- Select Favorite Databases > FirstSearch
- Using the pull-down menu by Jump to Advanced Search, select WilsonSelectPlus.
 - o Enter your search using keyword and/or subject indexes
 - o Set the Limit to boxes to:
 - Reviewed Journal Phrase – Peer Reviewed
 - o Select Search
- Repeat the search using Medline (Canadian Journal of Applied Physiology) and ArticleFirst
 - o Remove the peer-reviewed journal phrase (not an option in these databases)
 - o Search and mark any desired references
- One may mark articles in all of these databases and then view all of the marked articles by selecting Marked Records under the Results tab
- One may select to print, e-mail, or export to Ref Works any citations or articles. If an item is unavailable through Miller Library, one may request the article through InterLibrary Loan

Full-Text Academic eJournals

- Go to the Miller Library web site (<http://www.cornerstone.edu/library>)
- Select All Databases A-Z
 - Blackwell Full-Text Journals
 - Ideal
 - Sage Fulltext Collections